(57) ABSTRACT
The present disclosure provides a display panel and a display device. The display panel includes a pixel group arranged in an array, where the pixel group includes: a first pixel unit, a partial region of which is provided with a first sub-pixel; a second pixel unit, a partial region of which is provided with a second sub-pixel; and a third pixel unit, a partial region of which is provided with a third sub-pixel; where the first sub-pixel, the second sub-pixel, and the third sub-pixel have different colors, and any one of the first sub-pixel, the second sub-pixel, and the third sub-pixel is adjacent to other sub-pixels.
